ALL SORTS.

—Cap. Cowan is in the city.
—Turkey dinner at Bryan's today.
—Christmas furniture at Downey's.
—Tony Fredrick's benefit netted nearly $140.
—The French ball last evening drew a large crowd.
—M. W. Sills, the Comstock typo, is in the city.
—Santa Claus purchased a new dog cart at Rail's yesterday.
—The APPEAL wishes all its patrons a very Merry Christmas.
—Kilrain's backers have decided to risk $10,000 on Jake anyhow.
—Remember the Zimmer ball at the Armory Hall this evening.
—For Rent.—Large desirable rooms. Apply at this office. d1-1m
—Toilette articles, manicure sets and Christmas novelties at Cledics. 21f
—Mrs. Frank McCullough and her mother returned to Carson yesterday.
—Frank Newlands will occupy Senator Stewart's home during the the Winter.
—A wet sloppy snow set in yesterday just enough to make a muddy Christmas.
—The river is rising and the snow is two feet and a half deep in the mountains.
—Lyons and Pela, the men convicted in Storey of selling liquor to Indians, reached the State Prison yesterday.
—In getting claret for your Christmas dinner, be sure you get the genuine. Drop in at Kelly's and you make no mistake.
—The Christmas gatherings, trees and festivals of the various churches drew immense crowds and were highly satisfactory.
—As the $25 keno pot did not come off Sunday night, it will be the first pot to-night. At 9 o'clock there will be a $100 pot.
—A foot race has been arranged between T. Swain and Ed. Rooney, to take place next Monday afternoon on the Springs road for $1000.
—All the children want Friend's magnetic watch contrivance for a Christmas diversion. More people look at it than anything else in town.
—Jim Yerington, who has come home to spend the holidays, says that the worst beer he drank while abroad was in Germany, and the worst mixed drinks in London and Paris.
—Charley Wilson returned to this city on Sunday, and will remain several weeks. He was warmly greeted by his old acquaintances, who all insist that he has grown younger since breathing the ozone of the Bay.
—Rev. J. M. Sanford, the new rector of the Episcopal Church, preached at the morning and evening services on Sunday to an appreciative congregation. The new rector has made a very good impression with his flock.
—On Sunday evening, Mrs. D. A. Bender and Mrs. John G. Fox were presented a dozen silver spoons each by the Choral Society. These ladies have entertained the Society at their meetings for some months, and the testimonial was but a slight token of the Society's appreciation of their services.
—Archer Baker has laid in a stock of groceries with a special attention to the wants of the Christmas season. People who can put up with ordinary groceries during the general run of the year generally get something a little extra for the holidays. Some of those canned plum puddings and pickled oysters are just the cheese for a relish for a Christmas dinner.
—The Democratic press is considerably surprised that any Republican wants office under the new Administration. They seemed to have an idea that the Republicans would follow the lead of the Democrats four years ago and refuse to accept unless the President went after them with a shot-gun and made them accept the places with a promise to pay additional salary out of his private pocket.

The Christmas Wassail.

The Christmas wassail bowl had its origin in the old Norseland times, and when it reached Germany it flourished all over the Empire. The ancestors of Jake Klein always had a wassail bowl, and Jake says it was so big that he remembers when one of the pages at his grandfather's castle on the Rhine fell into one and was drowned.
Yesterday Klein sent a wassail bowl to the APPEAL. It was not shaped like the old German bowl, but was made of staves; hollow, hooped, and headed at each end. The contents are extracted by a brass faucet, and the bowl holds five gallons.
It is an old custom with first-class German brewers to send the beer round on Christmas eve to the editors. Those who do not dare to trust their brew to the critical test of the editorial palate, of course don't do this.
Got hell! Jake.
At Burlington's.
Just received a full line of Ladies' French Kid, Hand and Machine Sewed, of all styles and widths, ranging from $3 to $7.
The Markets.
At the Union Market, Dies and Loonhard have a hog on exhibition for Christmas pork.
The carcass hanging from the hooks over six feet from the wall, has its snout resting on it, and it tips the scale at over 450 pounds.
This is great pork and it is backed by huge quarters of Christmas beef with the fat on about six inches thick.
Geo. Hark has the usual Christmas display of beef and mutton with some grain fed pork that rolls with fat. There are hams there that would almost make an Israelite renounce his religion, and beef that came rolling fat off Truckee Meadows. This is Nevada beef in all its glory.
McDonald makes his first bow to the public as a Christmas beef supplier and his meat comes from no other than Ben Palmer's ranch where fat beef has been raised for years that has a reputation everywhere. Mixed up with this display are any amount of turkeys. Between the two no one complains.
—Certainly General Rosecrans should be placed on the army list with a rank not less than that of Brigadier General—that of Major General would be more like the justice of the thing. Republicans are forgetful sometimes—but ours is not ungrateful. But few now recall the fact that Rosecrans commanded the army of the Cumberland, which drove the rebel Dragg's army out of Kentucky and Tennessee in the campaigns signaled by the victories of Perryville and Stone river and the rescue at Chattanooga. Students of that early war history who have Sheridan's admirable memoirs, should turn to the pages wherein that great soldier pays homage to Rosecrans' service and abilities.
Jewelry Display.
There is a glittering display of jewelry, diamonds and ladies' watches in the show window of the Riackel building. The designs are of the latest, and will be sold during holidays, at prices which can not be duplicated in the State.
The assortment embraces all kinds of the most fashionable jewelry and tableware. Call and inspect goods and prices.
*d15tf CHATELAIN & GOLDEN.
—The great victory of the British at Suakin turns out to have been a very commonplace affair. After several hours of desperate fighting, shelling and charging, the loss was two killed—probably run over by an ambulance wagon—and a few wounded. But it must be borne in mind that Great Britain has a military reputation to maintain, and the British press is dependent on to "paint 'er red."
Christmas Party.
Prof. L. Zimmer, of Virginia City, will give a social party at Armory Hall on Christmas night. Music will be furnished by Zimmer's full orchestra. During the evening several of the latest overtures will be played. Tickets, admitting gentleman and ladies, $1. *

The Indian School.

Agent Welton has forwarded to the Indian Department a recommendation of the acceptance of the land owned by Henry Ross and C. F. Miller as a suitable site for an Indian School.
The land comprises 223 acres, 200 of which are under cultivation. The water right is by a decree of Court fixed at nineteen-one-hundredths of Clear Creek, or 57 inches.
An abstract of titles was also forwarded, and in a few weeks the land will be approved and a deed made to the U. S. Government from Ormsby county.
The price paid for the land was $5000 to Ross, and $3000 for Miller's. It is two and a half miles from the city, and a very suitable location for the School.
At Burlington's.
Just received a full line of Ladies' French Kid Dongola and Straight Grain Goat Hand Sewed Waukenphasts of the latest styles and patterns.
The Useful Cottonwoods.
"Oh yes; we cut the big cottonwoods down because we found the flying cotton so annoying."
That evening after supper they figured up that the wood they got out of the trees would save them $46 or thereabouts. It is a pity to see so many fine trees cut down as are now being put to the ax in this city. It will be many years before new trees of other varieties will take their places as shade trees, and before long the city will feel their loss.
At Burlington's.
Just received a full line of Gents' Kangaroo and English Porpoise shoes. These are something new and are warranted to wear out three pair of soles.
No More Cigarette Smoking.
That order of the Southern Pacific Company, prohibiting the smoking of cigarettes by their train men, is said to have been issued upon the hypothesis that anyone addicted to that dude habit is not possessed of sufficient brains to intelligently twist a brake or shovel coal.
Happiness and Health
Are prominent problems. The former depending greatly on the latter. Every one is familiar with the healthy properties of fruit, and no one can afford to be sick and miserable while the pleasant California concentrated liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, may be had of our enterprising druggist. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter, Agent.
At Burlington's.
Just received a full assortment of Misses', Boys', Youths' and children's shoes of all styles. We can fit any foot, also a full line of Gents' Hunting Rubber boots, over-shoes, Sandals, and rubber goods of all kinds.
Holiday Goods.
Call at E. B. Rail's store and secure from his large stock of fine goods manufactured by the leading houses in the world; and which he is offering at extreme low prices, a holiday present.
His clerks will take pleasure in showing you around and quoting prices.
No one need send away when they have such a stock to select from. See his advertisement in all the papers.
Advice to Mothers.
Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.
—At Burlington's you can find Boots and Shoes from all the best manufacturers in the East as well as San Francisco, and at prices below all square and honest dealing, and one price only to all.
IRVING ABELL, HENRY ANNOUNCES himself as a candidate for Page of the Senate.
—The Chicago News remarks: It will seem rather hard if so bright and so big a man as Von Reed is beaten for the speakership by a lot of pinheaded, jacklegged little gallinippers.
